Award Description	Delaware plans to use the ARRA funds to continue promoting cessation to target populations (including young adults, African Americans and Hispanics). We will also use the funds to revise the provider packets which were in the process of being revised when we learned that Free and Clear would take over the Quitline services that are currently provided to us by the American Cancer Society. The packets contained information encouraging physicians to use the five A's (Public Health Services Clinical Guidelines), the new fax referral system that we were going to implement and the basics of how the ACS Quitline worked. New Delaware will implement a physician fax referral program to the Quitline which Delaware has not previously implemented. As in previous years if funding is available, for a limited time, we will offer free NRT and prescription medications to all participating in the program regardless of income. The additional five percent of ARRA funds for NRT will help us make the ?free period? a little longer. Five percent of the ARRA funds will be used for NRT.
